RANCHERS DONATE SCRAP

These iron wagon wheels were part of 34 tons of scrap donated by the Ferretto Brothers to the scrap campaign and shown being loaded into trucks at the Ferretto Ranch on the Carson River, east of Dayton, Nev., for trucking to a collection depot. Note the acetylene tank aboard the truck for cutting up the larger pieces into hunks small enough to drop down Hitler's throat.

AMERICAN TROOPS IN AUSTRALIA NEED MAGAZINES

ADDRESS GIVEN WHERE YOU CAN SEND PAPERS OR BOOKS FOR OUR BOYS

Benjamin Fryer, noted printing craftsman of Australia spoke Thursday noon at the Niles Rotary club before about 40 members and guests, followed luncheon served at the Florence Restaurant.

He spoke interestingly on language differences between his homeland and ours, and on the fine reputation American troops quartered "down under" have made for themselves. He said Australian soldiers took no pride in their uniforms or appearance until they saw the smartness of the Americans.

The speaker was Australian born but became an American citizen during the last war so he could serve with a Masonic Ambulance unit overseas. At the close of that war he helped establish linotype and printing schools where wounded veterans could learn a useful trade. He is in California now for the same purpose.

Australia is to become a republic he said, on December 3, 1954. Clarence Graham introduced the speaker, who is a cousin of President "Chick" Burdick's wife of Newark.

Mr. Fryer said American troops in Australia are crazy for reading matter from the States: home town papers, magazines or books.

When not sent to an individual soldier parcels of reading matter may be sent to the American Center 155 Elizabeth St., Sydney, N.S. W., Australia, in care of Mrs. D. Arnott, hostess there, who will see that the reading matter is placed where American troops can find it.

Soldiers on leave in Sydney have nothing to do but sight-see on Sundays, he said, as no movies play there on Sunday and even public eating places are closed for the day. American authorities have taken over two theatres for the entertainment of American soldiers on leave, which now play on Sundays, the speaker finished.

The president announced the annual Christmas party for Thursday, December 24 this year will be a Father and Son party. Bring your own son or a neighbor's, but don't come alone. This plan is sponsored this year by Rotary International. Jim Crawford will be chairman of the day.

The Rotarians had the usual "fine" time.

DRAFT WILL TAKE HALF OF PRESENT SENIOR CLASS BOYS

CENTERVILLE—More than half the senior boys slated to graduate at the Washington Union High School in June, will be in uniform instead of cap and gown at the time for annual commencement exercises in June, faculty members anticipated yesterday.

Of the 50 boys in the graduating class 13 are already registered at the local draft board and subject to call late in December or in January. Eight others will register prior to Christmas and four others in January. Four seniors have enlisted in the Navy within the past weeks and are waiting reports from physical examinations, according to Jack Rees, vice-principal.

The Spring semester will begin February 23 and boys reaching their 18th birthdays after that date will be deferred until the end of the term under new orders of the selective service system.

NILES MENS CLUB "SHARES THE JAR" WITH YE WIMMIN

ATTENTION OF THE LADIES IS ARRESTED; THAT'S JUST FINE!

The Men's Fellowship club had the time of their lives Monday night at their first Ladies Night and Christmas jinx — when the jinx was put on certain members.

There were 50 ladies and gentlemen present — and five waiters. (You could not call the waiters gentlemen with their hair all mussed up in public!)

The tables were attractively decorated in the Congregational Church, Guildrooms. Red Candles, gold paper runners, living greens, with a favor and a sprig of English holly, imported from the Edenville Nursery at each place. Miss Collins of the high school faculty did the decorating, even using her own gas to come over from Centerville.

Albie Silva led off with several fine selections on his accordion, followed by solos by Miss Loretta Lewis, accompanied by Mrs. Dwight Thornburg at the piano. Dwight's turn finally came, so the Thornburgs played a lively piano duet dedicated to President Ted. It went as fast as the devil and was called "The Dance of the Demons." Very appropriate!

Reverend D. Q. read a patriotic poem written by his girl, Nell. In the absence of the secretary, who had passed out from imbibing too freely of the Christmas spirit Domini Dell pinch-hit with an improvisation of the minutes of the last meeting as taken off of a San Francisco daily newspaper. No, the garage is not built yet — the Grabbills need the land for a Victory garden. (That's a good out for Dee!)

Promptly at 7:30 the president ordered a complete silence so one of the youngsters present could listen to the "Lone Ranger" program brought to him by private radio. The club asked the N.B.C. to advance the hour so George can attend future club meetings and have his program, too.

With the treasurer too full for utterance, — oh, yes, food was served with the dinner, as well as other victuals — Tom the Terrible was asked to make up a treasurer's report which he did, drawing heavily on his imagination. He lost his balance way back in the beginning, about the time a parrot tripped him up, and fell flat on his facts. This new addition to the club's records was something new in addition. Banker Bob swooned along about page three.

The way Tom juggled his figures would make any skilled acrobat pale with envy. The new two-car garage was the principal item of expense. Tom delivered his report with an heir of subtraction. The division got into his hair, leaving a lock dangling over each eye-brow, below his high-brow. He cut quite a figure trying to get at his total. When he got there the total was lost. It's a fact! These are bare facts. It was all he could bear. It was a total lost.

Carolling Carleton restored his hearers with his usual fine singing, sort of easing the customers along for the surprise to come.

And then it came! Gleeful Gladys got to her feet and what she read we cannot repeat.

(Sh-h Something about Dee And his new girl friend... (Her initial begins with "F"));

NEW MANAGER

CENTERVILLE — The appointment of Loren Marriott of Centerville as manager of the Bank of America here, where he has worked so many years was announced last week by Mr. A. P. Giannini, president and meets with the approval of the bank's local patrons. He succeeds Howard B. White, who succumbed to illness several weeks ago. He is receiving the congratulations of his many friends here.

And Teasing Ted who was "Good to the last drip"; And Happy Harvey, a man Of Braun... but why go on? I've lost my metre and lost my rhyme...

Just in time!

There were gifts for many, awarded by lot, — I mean Ted. The recipients then assembled around the piano and played something awful. When asked what they thought of their execution the audience replied they were in favor of it.

So Carleton went out in the kitchen and cut himself with a knife. The claret flowed freely (blood to you.) After that it was just every lady retrieve her own pan or bowl while the men pitched in and washed dishes, folded chairs and tables, swept the floor, Ted too, put out the lights and laid away the memory of a great evening in some unoccupied recess of their minds.

There were many. Don't forget the parrot! Ho, hum... What a night... — Bonds for Bombs —

ADVICE GIVEN ON WINTER ROSE GARDEN PLANTING

By George C. Roeding, Jr.

Many gardeners find their space too restricted to have a real rose garden. Standard, or tree roses will solve this problem in numerous situations because the bushy portion of the plant is up and away from precious soil area. Given a standard roses will produce an abundance of cut flowers for the home if selection is confined to the more vigorous varieties producing long stems.

A few of the varieties carrying good cut flowers are mentioned here: Christopher Stone, E. G. Hill, Etoile de Hollande (red); Angles Mateu, Angele Pernet, Dr. Kirk, Mme. Henri Guillot, and Picture (pink); Golden State, McGredy's Yellow, Golden Emblem, and Mrs. Pierre S. Dupont (yellow); Hinrich Gaede, Mrs. Sam McGredy, President Hoover, and Talisman (multi-color); and McGredy's Ivory (white).

The season for planting bare root standard roses begins at this time of year and continues until mid-March, but balled tree roses may be planted at any time of the year. Both kinds of stock are available. The stock used to make a sturdy trunk for California standard roses is called I. X. L. It is a very quick growing rose stock with very few thorns. The height of budding the named varieties is 40 inches, standard with all nurseries, but some growers put in three buds and some only two buds. Our experience has been that three buds on a good, vigorous trunk will make a bushier, more symmetrical tree rose, with many more blooms.

Planting directions are the same for balled and bare root roses. The union of trunk and rootstock should be just a little above ground level. Dig spacious holes and fill in with good top-soil. Do not use fertilizer in the holes, but apply a balanced fertilizer when new growth begins and repeat two or three times during the growing season.

Watering and pest control operations are the same as recommended for bush roses but a great deal easier to perform. You will enjoy flowers on your standard roses all the more for their being carried at a level where they are easily observed.

The lesson-Sermon will also include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mind, supreme over all its formations and governing them all, is the central sun of its own systems of ideas, the life and light of all its own vast creation; and man is tributary to divine Mind," (p. 209).

THE NEALS TREAT THE BOYS AND VICE VERSA

MANUEL TEXERA DIES SUDDENLY OF HEART ATTACK

NEWARK — Manuel Texera, who for more than a quarter century has resided in Newark, died suddenly at his home here early Sunday morning after a severe heart attack. He had worked the previous day at the Moore dry dock in Oakland where he had been employed for the past six months. He made no complaint of feeling ill early Saturday when Mrs. Texera left home to attend a show. When his wife returned late in the evening, he complained of severe pains about the heart. A physician was summoned immediately but death came before assistance could be given.

Mr. Texera was born on Fayal Island, one of the Azores, 53 years ago. At the age of 13 he worked his way to America on a Whaling vessel, locating in New Bedford, Massachusetts, where he remained for a number of years. He came to California 30 years ago and found employment in the Wedgewood Foundry. For 25 years he was a member of Molders' Union Local 164, Newark, and at the time of his death was a member of a boiler makers' union in Oakland.

In early manhood Manuel Texera was united in marriage to Mary Andrade of Santa Clara. Besides his widow he is survived by two sons, Richard and Walter, both of whom reside in Newark.

MASONIC HOME MEMBER ENJOYS 95TH BIRTHDAY

(Special to the Register)
DECOTO — Isadore Franck, grand opera violinist in San Francisco in 1888, celebrated his 95th birthday at the Masonic Home Friday with relatives from the Bay section joining residents of the home at the party in the dining room following luncheon.

Mrs. G. Rose Torr was mistress of ceremonies and Mrs. Virginia Lord, matron, cut the birthday cake with congratulatory remarks by Superintendent James Eubanks, James Heath and others. The entire assembly of several hundred residents joined in singing "Happy Birthday." Franck is the oldest resident of the home both in years and in the point of residence, having lived here for a quarter of a century.

Franck was first violinist of the San Francisco Grand Opera House in 1888. He arrived in the Bay city at 21 years of age to lead the orchestra at MacGuire's Opera house. He has appeared in practically every type of musical entertainment on coast to coast tours. In 1876 he played a whole session with the W. W. Cole Circus both as cornetist and violinist. He also played the cello and the piano.

For many years he played for residents of the home here but has not done so recently.

There will be a Christmas wherever our boys are. The lighted tree will be there, too—real or envisioned.

Somehow this tree symbolizes the ideal for which they are fighting—democracy's determination—that the light of Faith and Freedom shall not perish from this Earth.

You can count on it, our boys will observe their Christmas as good Americans. Boys, now turned men, who not many years back thrilled to the big package under the lighted tree at home. Or whooped in delight at a football suit or a surprise bicycle suddenly appearing from secret hiding.

Like their fathers of another war, they will make sure that there is no dim-out of the brightness of Christmas for them. They will share Christmas in new-made comradeship. They will share Christmas as big brothers from America to put sparkle back into the eyes of war-sadened children in foreign lands.

Light your tree at home in dedication. Share your Christmas with a boy in service. Buy War Bonds in remembrance. Keep buying War Bonds that the light of Faith shall never fail. Buy War Bonds that no hand will be empty when a fervent voice says—"Praise the Lord and pass the ammunition."

Farm WAR NEWS

From Alameda County USDA War Board

GARDENS MORE IMPORTANT

The recent WPB order setting aside half of the 1943 pack of canned fruit, juices and vegetables for military and lend-lease needs emphasizes the importance of home gardens and home preservation of food. Every Victory garden, whether on a farm or in town, adds just that much to the total food supply of the nation and relieves pressure on commercial production and transportation facilities. Because of the climate here, Alameda County residents are more favorable situated for the raising of winter gardens than those living in more northern climates. Government bulletins and other valuable advice and information on farm gardens may be obtained from T. O. Morrison county farm advisor, at Hayward.

SMALL DAIRY HAS BIG JOB

Farmers who milk from one to ten cows will have a large part in determining whether the war workers on the home front and the boys on the fighting front will get the milk and other dairy products they need in 1943. Department of Agriculture studies show that the greatest potential increase in dairy production lies in the smaller herds, which are often operated as a side line to other types of farming and whose production could be materially increased with better management. Feed is fairly plentiful and there is a good market outlet for every drop of milk or ounce of butter that can be produced above the family's needs. Many small farms producing milk for strictly home use can thus make an important contribution to the nation's food supply.

FARM DEFERMENTS CLARIFIED

Procedure for deferment of "essential" farm workers under the provisions of the amendment to the selective service law passed along with the teen-age draft bill, have been received by Selective Service boards. The Alameda county US DA War Board is now preparing to supply the local draft board with information needed in re-classifying into classes 2-C and 3-C the essential farm workers of the county. The Army decision suspending from induction men over 38 is also expected to ease the drain on farm workers.

BITS AND PIECES

The Treasury is urging farmers to put part or all of their AAA payments into War Bonds. Last year approximately 18,500 farm people were killed by accidents and for each death it is estimated that 100 others were injured. This is a loss of manpower that can be largely prevented. Turkey growers are urged not to let present high prices influence them in selling birds needed for breeding stock next year. The California turkey goal calls for a 20% increase.

LEGION AUXILIARY NAMES STANDING COMMITTEE HEADS

NILES — Christmas cheer for patients at the U.S. Veterans Hospital at Oak Knoll was planned at the first business meeting of the ship Post of the Washington Township Post of the American Legion with Mrs. Ellen Mohn, new president, in charge.

The usual donation to the Livermore Christmas fund was voted and money formerly used to give a party for families of Legion and Auxiliary members will be devoted this year to holiday cheer for the Oak Knoll men. Mrs. Rose Vieux, Mrs. Nell Myers and Mrs. Theresa Swartz were put in charge of the latter program.

Coincident with these two projects, the auxiliary voted to organize a group of Gray Ladies, hospital visiting volunteer service of the Red Cross. Twenty-nine signed up to participate with Mrs. Swartz as chairman.

The following chairmen of standing committees for the year were appointed by the president: Betty Waynflete, membership; Angie Furtado, child welfare; Mae Souza, rehabilitation; Marie Duarte, Americanism; Marie Brazil, National defense; Marion Zwissig, community service; Nell Myers, legislation; Irma Peterson, poppy sales; Theresa Swartz, constitution and by-laws—publicity and radio; Lena Bertolotti; past presidents' parley; Geneva Smith; education; Maragret Anderson and Rose Vieux, adviser to the Junior Auxiliary.

KEEP RATION BOOK FROM AUTO THIEVES

Don't leave your gasoline ration book in your car; carry it with you in your wallet or purse.

This warning against unintentionally helping thieves to get gasoline for stolen cars was sounded today by the California State Automobile Association.

Without the ration book issued for the particular car and identified on the back of each coupon with the car's license number, the thief can not get gasoline in any legal way, it was pointed out.

Instances of gasoline being drained or syphoned from the tanks of parked cars are increasing, the Automobile Association reported.

Age and Youth

Grandmother surveyed the new dress her grand-daughter had just donned, with considerable disdain and disgust. The modern young miss noted the apparent disapproval and inquired, "Grandmother dear, when you were my age didn't you set your cap for granddaddy?" "Of course I did," replied grandmother, "but it wasn't my knee cap."

Wood

"How many kinds of wood are used in making a match?" "Two kinds," replied Inez. "He would and she would."

The Army

Captain: "Don't you know how to stand at attention?" Rookie (in oversized uniform): "I am sir. It's my uniform that's at ease."

A BACKYARD POULTRY HOUSE

This picture shows a poultry house designed by the University of California Agricultural Extension Service, that may be put in the backyard of any city or country home. In this ten or twelve laying hens may be kept, which should produce 1,400 or 1,500 eggs a year. Plans may be obtained from the office of the County Farm Advisor, or from the Agricultural Extension Service at Berkeley.

Details may be obtained from the County Agricultural Agent's office 822 C street in Hayward.

This year the holiday season finds millions of our fellow-citizens in the armed forces, millions more in the factories and shipyards who serve those gallant men at the front.

There is no finer Christmas gift that can be sent to our fighting forces than the greatest output possible of planes, ships, and supplies, bringing Victory closer.

The Long Distance lines of the Nation are serving this gigantic program by handling a tremendous number of calls, the greatest in telephone history.

Big as it is, the network of Long Distance lines has no margins this year for purely personal calls; nor can more lines be constructed. The copper and other materials that would require are needed still more by our fighting men.

In recent months, your co-operation in keeping Long Distance calls to the essential has helped to keep these lines clear for war calls. We ask now that you continue this assistance, over the holidays especially. To war-busy centers, please make only calls that are necessary.

We appreciate your friendly help and understanding.

POPULATION GAINS HERE FASTER THAN PROPERTY VALUES

Assessed value of taxable property in Alameda county averaged $866 per capita for the current year, compared with a per capita of $887 for 1942, California Tax-payers' association stated today, making public its study of values of property for local tax purposes in California counties.

The county ranked eighteenth below the $1,034 average per capita assessed value throughout the state the association found. The $1,034 per capita value throughout the state this year is $5 less than the $1,039 average of 1942.

Total assessed value of property in the county is $479,148,322 this year. Assessed value in the county for fiscal 1942 was $464,427,000.

Property throughout the state is assessed at $7,679,695,000. Total value for 1941-42 was $7,350,926,000. Population is increasing faster than valuations.

Salvage is doing a lot to win the war. The patriotic thing for any local government today is the same as for any individual. Government should salvage every bit of waste time, waste motion, unnecessary service, so that local property taxes next fall will be the lowest possible and the taxpayer will be more able to meet the demands of the federal government for war financing.

On Dr. Goebbels' calendar there's a circle 'round January 1

ON JANUARY 1 the Nazis are going to find out just how we Americans really feel about this war—whether we're all of us in it all the way.

For January 1 is the date set by Uncle Sam when everybody on a payroll ought to be enrolled in the Payroll Savings Plan—so that at least 10% of the gross payroll of every firm goes into War Bonds every payday.

And when we reach that goal by January 1—it's going to be painful news for Dr. Goebbels and his cronies!

At the moment there are many of us who ought to be on Payroll Savings Plans—and aren't. And though some of us are investing more than 10%, a lot of us are doing less than we can and should.

So it's up to you to see that we "Top That 10% by New Year's." If you're not in on the Payroll Savings Plan, sign up today. If you're setting aside less than 10%, get signed up for more—and fast! If you can afford to invest more than 10% do it—and be glad you can.

For there's nothing that can end this war quicker, nothing that can shatter our enemies as completely as the knowledge that we Americans are all of us fighting this war with everything we've got! And doing it our own democratic way—because we know in our own minds we've got to do it to survive.

And in serving our country we serve ourselves—not only today, but tomorrow as well. For every $3 we put into War Bonds comes back to us as $4 when the Bonds mature—to buy the things we want and cannot get today.

Won't you put your name on the line today? Sign up on the Payroll Savings Plan for not 6% or 7% or 8% but at least 10% of your wages every payday.

*****

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

If you are . . .

1. Already investing 10% of your pay in War Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan—boost that 10% if you can.
2. Working in a plant where the Plan is installed, but haven't signed up yet—sign up tomorrow.
3. Working in a plant where the Payroll Savings plan hasn't been installed, talk to your union head, foreman, or plant manager—and see if it can't be installed right away. The local bank will be glad to help.
4. Unable to get in on the Payroll Savings Plan for any reason, go to your local bank, or wherever Bonds are sold. They will be glad to help you start a Plan of your own.

WATCH THOSE LIGHTS

Township residents don't seem to realize that the direct light of electric bulbs must not be visible from out of doors. This means that window shades in homes must be drawn at night to a level lower than the lowest electric light then in use.

A bare outdoor light, whether in your back yard or on your front porch is now illegal. You must shade it entirely from above and on the horizontal level itself so that the bulb cannot be seen directly from any distance.

A Two pound coffee can makes a good shield, but leave the entire circle of the bottom on the can to shield the exposed end of the bulb. Your light will then be reflected directly onto the ground, and that's the only place you want light anyway, whether in a back yard or a front porch.

Officers will issue one warning and tell you what to do. They write down your name, and if they have to call back because you have not done what they have told you to do, the second call will mean a citation, followed by a fine.

This is a war measure and must be strictly obeyed by everyone.

FOREFATHERS' DAY

On December 21, 1620, the Pilgrims landed on Plymouth Rock.

That was a long while ago, as a man measures time by the span of his personal life. It was a very short while ago, however as man-looks at history. It is a good and true thought that, in 322 years since that tiny band set out to carve a tiny niche for precarious living on a hostile shore, the descendants of those hardy men, and others who followed them across the sea, have made vastly greater progress toward a civilization based on the Golden Rule than had been made in all the thousands of years of previous recorded history.

Three brief centuries ago, the principle of religious freedom was not accepted anywhere in the world. It was religious persecution that drove the Pilgrims to their perilous journey—and as soon as they were established in America, they persecuted those who differed with them theologically as ruthlessly as they themselves had been persecuted.

The world isn't perfect. Today the world writhes in the horror of universal war. Yet from an American civilization built in three centuries have come to the world Freedom of Religion, Freedom of Speech, Freedom of the Press, Freedom of Political Equality. From that civilization has come to the world the inspiration of the Bill of Rights.

The stupendous advancement in the cause of human rights overshadows even our great material advancement through invention and industry. It is an advancement that cannot be halted. In 1620, the ideal of a great nation fighting without thought of material conquest was foreign to human thought. Today, the American people sacrifice treasure and blood solely to preserve their own priceless freedom and to make freedom secure for men of good will throughout the world.

The era that began on this continent at Plymouth Rock has been glorious beyond the dreams of the men and women who landed there. Despite the heavy clouds of present world calamity, the era of which this war is the beginning may flower to a glory beyond the dreams of men who live and work and fight today.

YOUR FOOLISH MONEY

Are you a confirmed cigarette smoker, smoking the usual pack a day? If so, your little hobby costs you, at present prices of cigarettes, $54.75 per year, and that's nearly six percent interest on a thousand dollars.

In 20 years of steady smoking the cost of your social habit nears the $1,000 mark. So what? That's strictly your business.

Billions of dollars are spent per year by the American smoking public; other billions in beauty shops and cosmetics; more billions on candy, ice cream and chewing gum . . . All of which highlights our precious American way of life.

An optimist nowadays is a person who goes into a restaurant and pochanantly orders "ham and eggs and coffee." You might get the ham, or the eggs, or the coffee, but to get all three at the same time and place requires luck, coincidence and a touch of the miraculous.

UNCLE SAM BECKONS

"What it will be like" if young men are taken from civilian life into the army at the present rate for another six months is shown by figures released by Principal J. V. Gould covering senior class boys at Washington Union High School.

Of the 50 boys now attending class, 13 are signed up and expect to be called into service before the end of January. Eight others will register by the end of next month, as they attain their 18th birthdays. Four senior class members joined the Navy before the "stop enlistment" order was issued.

That cuts the number of boys exactly in half come February. Of the remaining 25, those who reach their 18th birthdays after February can ask for deferment until they finish their spring semester and can graduate.

Looks like 17-year old boys will have things pretty much their own way next year, so far as the "dates" are concerned.

ON THE RUN

Well, Rommel that old fox is on the run again. The British have blasted out his thin holding line at El Aghelia and put him and his'n in full flight 300 miles back to his next base in Tripoli. Allied planes are relentlessly picking off a tank here and a truck there until the nazis won't have much left by the time the 300 miles is covered.

Only a few Japs are left at Buna and the Americans and Australians are picking them off one by one.

The Russians have killed 160,000 nazis by count in the last three weeks. It seems killing nazis and Japs is the only way you can "convert" these heathens to the Christian viewpoint.

Down in Texas a ranking officer told graduates at Randolph Field last week that they were schooled for the special purpose of continually bombing Italy, Germany, AND Japan. The officer said "it won't be long now" so far as large raids on Japan are concerned. And that's the news we're waiting for, and when bombing of Japanese paper cities begin, it will be the beginning of the end.

Jeff Donnell, Columbia film player, collects heavily-tinned milk cans to aid in the Northern California campaign to round up stray dairy containers. December 16th to 19th have been designated "Round-Up" days by the dairy industry and the State Department of Agriculture. Patriotic housewives, ranchers and farmers are urged to return all empty cans, cases and glass milk bottles that the delivery of dairy products will not be interrupted.

The merciless bombing of Italy's beautiful cities should soon knock Italy out of the war. The Italian people love their homeland, are proud of their art and culture as exemplified in their cities — and they had no stomach for this war, anyhow; and how they hate their nazi masters.

All things considered, the end cannot be more than a year away now. One hopes so: the civilian economy is now pretty badly dislocated, and everyone more or less feels the pinch of rationing and priorities.

But it can't be helped. This is war and now we're "getting along with it" — satisfactorily.

JAPANESE DEATH SENTENCE

This is total war — and nothing less than total victory can write the peace which ends it. If there was ever any doubt of that in this country; if there were still some who believed that after a time, a negotiated peace with Tokio and Berlin would be possible and practical — all doubts have been dissolved in recent weeks and months as Axis aims and hopes have been made crystal clear.

There can be no peace of appeasement. Peace can only come with annihilation of our enemies; only when their armies have been decimated and destroyed and their war lords exterminated. Two years ago, even a year ago, that might have sounded like a callous and brutal appraisal, unworthy of a peace-loving people. But we have not written the terms of the peace; our enemies have written them for us.

The Japanese foreign minister, Masayuki Tani, in a recent address to the people of Japan on the subject, "The Resolve to Exterminate and Overwhelm America and Britain," declared: "Without the annihilation of America there will be no true greater East Asia sphere. Therefore the enemy's destruction must be carried out in a most decisive manner." In the same broadcast, he spoke confidently of the day when Japanese troops would march into Melbourne and Sydney, Seattle and San Francisco, New York and Washington "and even London!"

In that speech, the Jap foreign minister wrote Japan's own death sentence. And Hitler, in similar words, has written Germany's Japan and Germany must be crushed until they can never rise again as military powers to endanger the lives and peace of liberty-loving people.

vegetables where the steak was wont be.

And at this critical juncture, he hears the announcement of Secretary of Agriculture Wickard that only a fraction of the ordinarily tremendous truck harvest will be available in the coming months for civilian use; that lettuce, peas, carrots, onions, celery, corn, tomatoes and fruits of almost every variety will be unavailable in the shops and absent from many tables unless produced at home.

The pronouncement, necessitated by growing food needs of our own armed forces and of lease-lend commitments, puts the question of the domestic food supply squarely up to the home front.

Men who haven't seen the color of good brown earth since they started working for wages will have to take a good look at it now, and decide whether it's peat moss, bone meal, lime or leaf mold that's needed to make it nurture potatoes and corn.

Women who for years have thought a trowel is a manicuring implement will correct the error, or sadly miss their endive salad.

The family with a backyard plot is the lucky one, for the order, apparently, is "produce or go without." In the last war, community gardens planned for apartment dwellers were said to have wasted more seed and more energy of amateur enthusiasts who didn't know how to go about the job, than they were worth.

There is no reason why, through bad management, the misfortune should be repeated. There are enough competent gardeners in any community to determine the soil needs of available vacant lots, to direct and supervise their proper preparation, planting, care and harvest. And there is no reason for any shortage of family workers, doing their gardening in whatever free time they have from other wartime duties — provided they are aware their food supply for the duration depends not on their ability to buy, but on their own personal efforts in the project.

GOOD HEALTH IS A DUTY

Do you remember the virulent flu epidemic of 1918?

Twenty million Americans were stricken.

Of these, six hundred thousand died—more than ten times

the American death losses in action in the entire first World War, more than two and a half times the total of American war casualties, killed and wounded!

So far no epidemic has struck America in this war. Perhaps none will—and this is devoutly to be hoped. But diseases from malnutrition and exposure and cold are rising throughout Europe, according to news dispatches; and one of war's necessities is that ships that might carry contagion cross and recross the oceans between America and all parts of the world.

Thousands of doctors are joining the colors to care for the fighting men; and medical authorities are predicting that rationing of doctors for the civilian population is in the offing.

Such facts present to every citizen his duty to maintain his health and strength by observing common sense rules of living. A sick citizen is a loss of manpower for the war effort. A sick citizen may be a danger as a focal point for the spread of sickness to others. A man cannot help getting wet feet—but he takes needless risk by neglecting to change to dry socks and shoes as soon as he gets home. A man with a feverish cold and cough has no right in these times, to go to shows or other crowded places where he may infect others.

There must be, as always, an irreducible minimum of acute and chronic illness in all parts of the nation. But every individual and family may help greatly in holding the scourge of sickness to that irreducible minimum by eating plenty of nourishing food and taking adequate rest, by avoiding undue exposure and fatigue, by spending as many hours as possible in the open air and sunshine, and by giving attention to minor, incipient ailments as soon as they appear.

Good health has always been a priceless personal reward of common sense living. Today, good health is a war-time duty.

WPB ASKS FARMERS TO BRING IN SCRAP

Nelson Telegram Points Out Need For Heavy Farm Metal

WASHINGTON — The Nation's farmers will take the pole position in the stretch drive for heavy iron and steel scrap during the closing weeks of 1942, according to a telegram from WPB Chairman Donald Nelson to the editors of more than 10,000 weekly newspapers and farm publications.

Emphasizing the need for heavy scrap to strengthen the greater abundance of lighter household scrap, which flooded the country's scrap yards as a result of the recent newspaper campaign, Mr. Rosenwald called attention to the fact that, next to industry, the agricultural areas are the best source of heavy scrap.

Already in the spotlight because of his extra efforts to increase crop production in the face of serious wartime shortages of manpower and machinery, the farmer thus assumes the added burden of supplying war materials needed in the production of ships, tanks, guns, aircraft and all kinds of mechanized equipment.

Despite the difficulties of crop production, however, farmers have taken an active part in scrap collection from the beginning, and have already made a good showing. But now that their harvests have been completed and they are free to devote a large share of their time to other activities, the Government is asking them to make an all-out effort to collect and turn in every pound of idle scrap still remaining on almost every farm, during the next few weeks.

All of the manpower and transportation facilities of local salvage committees in the rural areas will be thrown into this year-end effort of 1942, Mr. Rosenwald said. The press has been asked to give widespread publicity to the drive and to use their influence to coordinate the activities of all cooperating groups, such as the American Farm Bureau, the National Grange, the Farmer's Union, the Four-H Clubs, the Future Farmers of America, the Boy Scouts, the REA Cooperatives, the WPA, State and County Highway Departments, the Farm Equipment Dealers, the Automotive Safety Foundation, local civic and business organizations, and many others.

U.S.D.A. War Board Chairmen, County Agents, and Community Leaders, who have been among the most active in farm scrap collection in the past, are in a position to give important aid, and will be called upon to take a leading part.

Conservation Department officials point out that in many sections of the country this drive will be a race against the weather, and that no time should be lost in getting started. Winter weather will be a handicap, but unless transportation is completely paralyzed, the work of collection, it is believed will be prosecuted with the utmost vigor. "Snow, ice, rain and mud, will not stop our men on the fighting front," said Eric H. Marks, Chief of the Farm Scrap Section, "and we know it will not stop the army of farmers and volunteer workers in this drive for heavy farm scrap."

Reports coming in from every section of the country indicate that the amount of iron and steel scrap still remaining on American farms far exceeds the tonnage so far turned in. In fact, it is evident that the surface has hardly been scratched, and it is for this reason that great hopes are held out for a smashing success in the current effort.

A word of caution is voiced by the Department of Agriculture to all who participate in this drive, not to overlook the fact that usable parts should be removed from old machines and salvaged for future use. This is because farm machinery is now being rationed, and all existing farm machines must be kept in operating condition. Save the usable parts; repair every machine that can be used; scrap the rest.

Already there are signs that this will prove to be one of the most popular of civilian war efforts. Farmers know of the records set up in city drives for household scrap, and they do not intend to be beaten by their city cousins. They know that more farm scrap is what Uncle Sam wants, and they are going to see that he gets it.

Ev'rybody Ev'ry Pay Day

6,000,000 Women Enrolled in War Savings Payroll Plan.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Women At War Week, opening Nov. 22, during which women will seek to sell the greatest single week's volume of War Bonds and Stamps will serve to put the spotlight on the mighty contribution women generally are making toward financing the war.

Six million women are on War Savings payroll plans. Their monthly deductions total $70,000,000.

The customers of 300,000 newspaper boys who have sold more than $50,000,000 in War Bonds and Stamps are mostly women.

Volunteer saleswomen run nearly all the Bond booths in theatres from Maine to California. They also are sparking the War Bond sales in retail stores.

Ralph G. Engelsman, Associate Field Director of the payroll savings section of the War Savings Staff, readily admits that without the support of women the phenomenal record of payroll savings enrollments would not have been achieved. Payroll savings plans are now in operation in 148,000 businesses and factories. Employees of twenty-five thousand of these firms are converting at least 10 percent of gross payrolls into War Bonds every payday.

Associate Field Director Engelsman says that women have contributed directly and indirectly toward this record. When a man devoted 10 or more percent of his pay envelope to War bonds, the woman at home has had a powerful voice in the decision. Her planning, her economies and her cheerfulness play their part in the success of payroll savings.

The Treasury Department is counting upon this woman influence in its current campaign to "top that 10 percent by New Year's." By the first of the year the Treasury hopes to enroll at least 3,000,000 women workers in a payroll savings plan days in San Francisco last year, you'll remember a brightly-lighted city, a food-loving city justly proud of offering the finest in every type of the world's cooking, an auto-driving city that couldn't quite cope with its traffic snarls, a convention city, a pleasure-loving city that took joy in playing hard and late, and, above all, a city of hospitality.

You probably won't spend the holidays in an Francisco this year unless you have essential business there, but if you should here's what you'd find—a darkened city that dims its lights for the sake of America's sons at sea, a city whose taste in food is becoming simpler because our fighters have first choice, a city that's learning to walk and like it to save the nation's rubber, a city that tells conventions not essential to the war to wait until Victory Year to come to San Francisco, a city cooperating with curfew regulations for the best interests of service men and war workers.

RICHARD BRUNELLI GOES A-DUCKING AND GETS — A-DUCKING

Richard Brunelli and Albert Silva, both 14 years old and living in Niles had quite an experience early one morning this week while duck hunting on the lake by Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Grau's home.

One of them shot a duck in the middle of the lake and Richard set forth in a home made canoe and spilled into the cold water about 400 feet from shore. His cries for help aroused Mrs. Grau and her sister who hurried down to their row boat, only to find it had been stolen from its usual mooring place.

Mrs. Grau called Fire Chief Tony Alves who came out with a long rope. He induced the boy to make the effort to hang on to the boat and push it towards shore, notwithstanding the weed growth which clutched at his legs.

He finally came within reach of the rope and Alves hauled him to shore, suffering with the cold but otherwise unhurt. Mrs. Grau later found her own boat secreted in the brush at the far end of the lake.

SIXTY PERSONS ENJOY CURRENT AFFAIRS CLASS

About 60 persons turned out Tuesday evening to enjoy the first Current Affairs class held in the Niles Grammar school auditorium, under the direction of Jack Rees, viceprincipal of Washington High school.

Two Navy men showed an instructive sound reel of what happens to a recruit when he joins the Navy, followed by a colored film of Naval action during the great Battle of Midway.

Then the audience joined in discussing the Roosevelt Churchill Strategy, and Post-War America. Another class will be held in January, Mr. Rees said.
